Hi Steve,

Thanks for the reminder. I am booked in depositions this week, much like we all were last week. Can we meet and confer after Thanksgiving? I think it will be more productive than trying to rush something this week. Please let me know your thoughts.

Thanks,

Jennie Vee Silk

Counsel,

We still have not heard from you regarding our request for a Rule 37 conference.

We are reiterating our request for a conference. Josh's letter proposes multiple dates and times. If you have other dates and times that would work better for you, we invite you to propose them.

If we do not hear from you by COB tomorrow we are going to proceed on the assumption that you are declining to meet and confer.

Thanks and best regards,

- Steve

Counsel,

In the letter Josh sent Wednesday we ask for a Rule 37 conference next week (the week of Nov. 18) and identify several times that we are available.

I do not believe we have received a response from you.

Do any of the times listed in Josh's letter work for you? Are there any others that would work?

We are currently holding those times open and would appreciate the courtesy of a response.

Thanks and best regards,

Steve
